Dear Parishioners,

Ask yourself where you should be able to find, in plain view, a Crucifix, holy water font, image of Jesus, and image of Mary?

- A) Every Catholic Church
- B) Every Catholic's bed room
- C) Every Catholic's family room
- D) All of the above.

The correct answer is — all of the above. How much should you be planning to spend on these? Consider this — how much do you spend on a television to last 5 years? How much do you spend to provide shows to watch during that time? How much are you willing to spend for a reminder of God's love and your life with God that began at Baptism? These can last a lifetime, and then be great family keepsakes passed down to your grandchildren.

Switching topics — do you have a question for me? Have you heard a question that would be of interest to many in the bulletin? Feel free to write me an email or send a letter to me at the church office. If you want me to remember, please don't tell me right before or after Mass, because I will forget.

Sincerely,
Fr. Jim Dubrouillet
