Twenty-seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Parishioners,

Next weekend we will gather at Holy Cross at 12:30 and celebrate the 100th anniversary of Mary's sixth appearance at Fatima. The murders in Las Vegas last weekend are just the most recent example of widely publicized violence. National news rarely covers the 1 or 2 at a time murders in sections of Chicago and Detroit killing far more people every year. Just in September 2017, 330 people were shot in Chicago, with 57 murdered. Throughout the world, very many people are killed for refusing to agree that Mohammed is the prophet and Allah the only God. Even Muslims are killed by Muslims for many reasons. Many soldiers give their lives trying to establish or protect peace. And of course, abortion ends far more human lives in the United States and in most other countries. Peace. Let us especially pray for the end of violence, but peace in every human heart is what we need for the end of violence. Let us pray on October 15th for peace. If you can join us in person at 12:45, great. If not, please join us in prayer with the Glorious Mysteries of the Rosary.

Fr Jim Dubrouillet
