Pentecost Sunday - ✠ June 4, 2017

Dear Parishioners,

When the Holy Spirit came upon the Apostles at Pentecost, it was a unique event in one sense: they were able to speak openly and be heard by everyone regardless of the language limitations of the hearers. When the priests of our diocese gather, it is not unusual to find three different languages being spoken. And, it's very easy to recognize that we don't all understand what is being said. On Pentecost, everyone could recognize that everyone could understand.

The Holy Spirit continues to give us many gifts, especially through the Sacrament of Confirmation. Join me in praying that we will use these gifts to bring unity to the Church. Pray that we will be patient with misunderstandings, and that we will do the work required to clear up misunderstandings!

Fr. Jim Dubrouillet

The Diocese of Charleston has begun to prepare for our Bicentennial. We have a remarkable history and future full of possibilities to celebrate! In preparation, Bishop Guglielmone is inviting input from people throughout the diocese through a brief survey. It will help to frame an understanding of what is most valued, areas of concern, and the hopes and expectations of our diocesan family as we move forward. Please complete this survey by June 25th.
