Dear Parishioners,

Parish Missions are a fine tradition in the Church. They are times of grace for us to be reminded of God's life among us.

Many of you have received an email introducing the leader of our upcoming parish mission. Parish leaders are invited to a special introductory meeting, Saturday Oct 22nd, 9:00 AM thru lunch. If you can make this meeting, please tell Liz by Wednesday morning. I urge everyone to come to the various events, Oct 23-26, Sunday thru Wednesday, beginning at 7:00 PM, at St. Luke's.

On a personal note, many of you know that 11 years ago I bought a puppy — Shadow. He was a very helpful companion to my father in his final years, and has been entertainment for me. He has been an affectionate and popular mascot to six parishes. This week, he was diagnosed with advanced diabetes, and he has died. I follow our bishop's example of thanking everyone for your expressions of consolation, and ask you not to help me get another dog.

Fr. Jim
