Sixth Sunday of Easter

Dear Parishioners,

All ordinations are extremely important events for the whole Church. The particular ordination at St. Mary's in Greenville, on May 18 starting at 6:00 pm, is quite important for Holy Cross and St. Luke. Our parishioner Jimmy Touzeau will be ordained a "transitional deacon" — that is to say, a deacon who will be ordained a priest next year. For us, it is a great blessing that this ordination will be so close — St. Mary's, 111 Hampton Avenue in Greenville. I strongly encourage you to go to the ordination. Even if you cannot go, please keep Jimmy in your prayers during the next two weeks.

At the ordination, Jimmy and Francisco will promise to dedicate their lives to serving the Church in our diocese, which covers the state of South Carolina. The most important "job" of deacons and priests is our daily prayers for the people. This requires praying the "Divine Office" — set prayers throughout the day. Officials hold offices, and people who receive an office are expected to fulfill the duties of the office. The required daily prayers are called the "Divine Office" because they are a crucial part of the duties of deacons and priests. The "Divine Office" includes prayers for every person on earth, and every one of us should be grateful for the prayers of deacons, priests, and bishops. Let us pray for all who are ordained.

Fr. Jim Dubrouillet
